VICTIMS' BILL OF RIGHTS

Victims' and Witnesses of Crime Have the Right to:

- Be treated with dignity and compassion;
- Protection from intimidation and harm;
- Be kept informed about various phases of their case, including investigation, prosecution, trial and sentencing;
- Provide information and input into the criminal justice process, especially at such key points as plea bargaining, sentencing, and parole release hearings;
- Speedy return of their property used for evidence;
- Notification from officials about arrest, release of defendants, time and location of legal proceeding, sentencing, and parole hearings;
- Be informed about eligibility for state crime compensation or financial support, where applicable, and the right to be helped in completing application forms in a timely manner when applicable;
- Request and utilize the services of the Victim Advocate Program.

If all local efforts to obtain your rights have failed, you may request assistance from the Governor's Victim's Coordinating Committee at DCJ. For additional information, call the Office for Victims' Programs at the Division of Criminal Justice at 303-239-4442 or 1-888-282-1080.
